HONOLULU, OCT. 23, 1888. The receipts from out ports for a week past included 10,029 bags sugar and 4,481 bags rice. No less than three large ocean steamers arrived during the week, two sailing again as soon as their business at this port could be disputabled. The first was the steamship Australia from San Francisco, sailing again to-day. Next was the Occidental and Oriental S. S. Co's Arabic, unberalded, with Chinese and Japanese immigrants from Hongkong and Yokahama. Lastly we had the Oceanic S. S. Co's Alameda, carrying the Anglo Australian mails, arrived on Friday and departed on Saturday. Besides the above there should be mentioned the United States warship Brooklyn, after a 4l days' passage from Nagasaki, Japan, ander sail, homeward bound. She is having some repairs done by Messrs. Scren son & Lyle, lessees of the Marine Railway and will probably sail for New York. For other arrivals and departures of the week see the daily shipping record on this Several light shipments of sugar have been made during the week, but when the grinding season fairly begins the difficulty will be to get tonnage fast enough.

The Wilder S. S. Co., Inter-Island S. N. Co. and C. Brewer & Co. have declared dividends, the first-named paying, besides the recollar one, a special dividend of $7 per The retail trade still complains generally of dullness.

Law Division. James W. Gay Joseph P. Mendonca, A. S. Hartwell for plaintiff; F. M. Hatch for defendant. Action of covenant. New trial granted Aug. 27, 1888. Tried before the following named foreign jury: Hermann Focke, Chas. T. Gulick, Chas. Lucas, John M. Dowsett, H. G. Crabbe, Frank Godfrey, John A. Spear, Harry Armitage, W. O. Atwater, G. A. Neth, J. B. Atherton and Geo. E. Howe. This is the third trial, At the special term in February a unanimous verdict for plaintiff for $2,599 30 was given. A motion for a new trial having been granted, the case was tried a second time at last July term, when a verdict was again given for plaintiff with damages $2,230. Both plaintiff and defendant except to the charge of the Court in certain respects, and at 12:16 the jury retire. At 1:48 p. m. they are brought in by order of the Court and say they stand six to six, and that they possibly will arrive at a result after another ballot, and they therefore re-turn to further consider. At 1:54 p. m. they again return with a verdict for plaintiff for $1,200, three jurors dissenting. Plaintiff excepts to the verdict as contrary to the law and the evidence and gives notice of motion for a new Joseph H. Congdon vs. H. Acker mann and F. A. Schaefer, C. W. Ash ford for plaintiff; A. S. Hartwell and F. M. Hatch for defendants. The following jurors are sworn: Hermann Focke, C. H. Nicoll, Harry Armitage, G. A. Neth, John M. Dowsett, H. G. Crabbe, W. E. H. Deverill, Chas. Lucas, E. W. Jordan, Chas. T. Gulick, Frank Gertz and W. F. Bates. This suit is for $5,000 damages caused by the arrest of plaintiff as he was about to leave for San Francisco on the steamer Australia in December, 1886, on account of freight unpaid on a cargo of hogs brought by the barkentine Geo. C. Perkins, of which Capt. Ackermann was master and F. A. Schaefer & Co. the agents. Plaintiff is on the stand as first witness when the Court adjourns at 4:37 p. m. till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. arrest of the plaintiff complained of gave rise to habeas corpus and contempt of court cases, besides which an assumpsit case of Ackermann vs. Congdon was tried in this Court.

THURSDAY, Oct. 18. The Court opens at 10 a. m., foreign jurors in attendance. Noon recess 12 m.

till 1:15 p. m. Congdon vs. Ackermann and Schaefer. Claim for $5,000 damages for trespass. Continued from yesterday, V. V. Ashford joining counsel for plaintiff. After defendants' resting Mr. Hatch orally moves that upon the pleadings and the evidence the Court direct a verdict for the defendants, and after argument by himself and Mr. C. W. Ashford and Mr. Hartwell, the Court rules in favor of the motion of the defendants and instructs the jury: that plaintiff has not brought a case that is supported in law and in fact, and that there is nothing for them to deliberate upon, and that therefore they must give a verdict for the defendants. Plaintiff excepts to the instructions of the Court to the jury Whereupon, without retiring, at 2:53 p. m., the jury render an oral verdict for the detendants. Plaintiff notes general exceptions to the verdict as contrary to the law and the evidence.

J. S. Martin vs. L. B. Kerr. V. V. Ashford for plaintiff; A. S. Hartwell for defendant. Trespass. plaintiff for $1,500. Defendant excepts to the verdict and gives notice of motion for a new trial.

J. S. Martin vs. L. B. Kerr. C. W. Ashford and V. V. Ashford for plaintiff; A. S. Hartwell for defendant, Assumpsit, $1,000, for balance of salary on alleged yearly engagement which was broken. The following jurors are sworn: A. Gilfillan, H. G. Crabbe, Chas. Lucas, W. E. H. Deverill, Ira A. Burgett, John Spear, Harry Armitage, J. H. Hare, W. O. Atwater, W. F. Bates, Geo. E. Howe and C. H. Nicoll. On plaintiff resting Mr. Hartwell orally moves for a nonsuit on the ground that plaintiff did not accept the proposition of the defendant when made on April 5, 1887. The Court declines to instruct the jury in accordance with the motion. After defendant presents evidence, also plain-tiff in rebuttal, at 4:30 p. m. Mr. Hartwell addresses the jury, and at 4:43 Mr. V. V. Ashford does likewise. At 4:54 the Court charges the jury, who at 5:03 retire to consider their verdict, and at 5:09 return with a verdict for the defendant. Plaintiff formally notes an exception to the verdict as contrary to the law and the evidence. The jury was then discharged, all jurors informed they would not be required to attend before Monday morning, and the Court adjourned for the day.

SATURDAY, Oct. 20. The Court opens at 10:06 a. m. Noon recess from 12 m. till 1:30 p. m. Law Division. Kuanalewa et al. versus Kipi et al. C. Brown for plaintiffs; W. O. Smith for defendants. Ejectment. On the 12th instant a verdict was given for plaintiffs, two jurors dissenting, and defendant ex-cepted thereto with notice of motion for a new trial. The motion filed 19th inst. for a new trial is to-day argued, and granted providing plaintiffs do not file a disclaimer to an undivided one-eighth of the land. Defendants note exceptions to the ruling. Plaintiffs forthwith file disclaimer-that is, Namokueha disclaims the one-eighth (undivided) of the land awarded by the verdict Divorce Division. A. M. Kahananui vs. B. H. Kahananui. C. Creighton and V. V. Ashford for plaintiff; A. Rosa for defendant. Trial occupies all the rest of the day.

The Annual Meeting-The Work and the Workers. The fourth annual meeting of this organization was held on Thursday afternoon, October 18th, in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., the President Mrs. J. M. Whitney presiding.

There were about forty ladies present, nearly two-thirds of the whole membership.

After the usual devotional exercises, the reports of the previous monthly meeting were read and other items of business attended to before the opening of the annual exercises. The Recording Secretary then read quite a lengthy report of the past year, showing a great deal of earnest effort and some really good work successfully accomplished. She gave some telling figures showing the growth of this gigantic retorm in the United States. The W. C. T. U. which numbered 200,000 two years ago has swollen its
